About Us

The Signal is a weekly student publication serving the Georgia State community. Founded in 1932, the paper represents the voice of the student body and its interests. While it is primarily a source of information about everything concerning Georgia State, the paper has expanded its coverage to also include metro Atlanta.

The Signal prints 4,000 issues weekly during the fall and spring semesters.

Publication Schedule

The Signal publishes every Tuesday during fall and spring semesters, with special issues during the summer and fall semesters.
